JLT Professions

Commitment and Innovation

JLT Professions have been designing leading edge insurance and risk solutions to serve the needs of professional associations and businesses throughout Australia for many years. Our teams of industry specialists have the skills and experience to recognise the specific needs of our clients and consistently deliver innovative and cost effective solutions, both to minimise exposure and add value.

We understand that your reputation is wholly dependent on the trust your members have in your association and your brand. At JLT Professions, we invest time to truly understand the needs of your members and only develop products that consolidate and enhance your relationship with them.

We recognise that in life and business the one thing you can be certain of is uncertainty. Core to our offer is a consistent approach, shielding our clients and partners from financial uncertainty, even through the most challenging market conditions.

We are different because we can offer you a broader choice of how to protect you and your customers, sometimes beyond just traditional insurance. We then work together to make informed decisions about which route delivers the best solution based on your needs.

We provide a seamless integrated service through our dedicated national teams throughout Australia, enjoying access to A+ rated national and international insurance markets.
