Commitment and Innovation

For a quarter of a century JLT Australia have been designing cutting edge insurance and risk management solutions for our clients in the retail food and liquor sector.

We understand the commitment you have both to your business and to your customers and take pride in delivering comprehensive, innovative and cost effective solutions to protect you from risk and uncertainty and which consolidate and enhance your brand.

We are well known for our attention to detail and for providing first-class customer service. Our dedicated teams of professionals throughout Australia combine years of knowledge and experience of working with supermarket operators, always investing the time to ensure we fully understand your requirements. We never take short-cuts.

We recognise that in life and business the one thing you can be certain of is uncertainty. Core to our offer is a consistent approach, aimed at shielding you and your business from risk and financial uncertainty, even through the most challenging market conditions.

To support our reputation for providing fresh, modern ideas, as a business we always embrace technology and can present a seamless, integrated service backed by modern web-based delivery platforms.

Commitment and Innovation

We are different because we can offer you a broader choice of how to protect you and your customers, beyond just traditional insurance. We then work together with you to make informed decisions about which route delivers the best solution based on your needs.

Our leading National Supermarkets Discretionary Trust is the envy of our peers and provides a unique financial vehicle for providing risk protection, with greater flexibility than a traditional insurance product:

- Broad ranging cover designed solely for your industry
- Competitive terms
- Direct benefits to you for improved loss management
- Dedicated claims team
- Discretionary claims decisions
- Members may share in surplus profits

Our aim is simple - to consistently deliver products that offer you the widest protection, backed by exceptional customer service and which allow you to focus solely on your customers and your business.
