PRESS RELEASE

JLT Australia expands to Gold Coast

21 July 2008, Sydney - International risk management and insurance firm, Jardine Lloyd Thompson Pty Ltd (JLT) has announced the opening of a new retail office in Gold Coast.

The office is led by Johnnie Macleod, Branch Manager, who has over 20 years of industry experience and previously worked in JLT's Brisbane office.

"JLT has many corporate clients in this region and this strategic move helps us add significant value to their existing risk and insurance programmes," said Leo Demer, Managing Director, JLT.

"We also welcome new clients and look forward to helping them manage their critical issues, providing them with our full range of innovative solutions, including risk management, insurance broking, self insurance, claims management and workers compensation, " said Leo.

The Gold Coast office is the seventeenth retail office of JLT Australia operations, a network of branches located in all major Australian capitals, focusing on the complex requirements of local government, corporations, associations as well as non-for-profit organisations.

"I take pleasure in congratulating Johnnie on his new appointment."
